

Surname: Spicer	First Name(s): Victoria Lilian	Army Number: W/235638
Maiden name (if applicable): Meek	Name used during service: Meek	Rank: Corporal (Acting Sgt)
Main base: Oswestry	Training base: Lancaster	Enrolled at: Manchester
Platoon/Section:	Company/Battery: 236 Reg Royal Artillery	Group/Regiment: 1 st Mixed Radar Regiment	Command:
Year(s) of service: Feb 1943 to Dec 1945	Reason for discharge: Released at the end of the War	Trade: Radar Instructor
Uniform Issued: Shirts Skirt/Jacket Ties Underwear Woollies Trousers Cap Jerkin Boots Longjohns	Photo:
Description of daily tasks:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PT in the morning. • Parade. • Maintenance of radar equipment. • Classes on new types of equipment. • Training of recruits ATS and men of various arms of military.
Pay book:	Not available

Memorable moments:

- Most of my trainees were men returning off active service for retraining.
- I remember taking them out on exercises in the Welsh mountains!
- I was posted to Larkhill on Salisbury Plain to work on trials for the War Department on new equipment.
- I also used to relieve N.C.O.'s on gunsites.

Photos:

1st Mixed Radar Regiment, Royal Artillery

My fellow N.C.O.s, Oswestry