

Information provided by Windscreen Magazine, Winter 1998, Issue 81
Military Vehicle Trust

| | | | |
|---|---|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Surname: Willey | First Name(s): Phyllis | Army Number: W/38972 | |
| Maiden name (if applicable): Unknown | Name used during service: Willey | Rank: Private | |
| Main base: Pickwick Manor, Corsham | Training base: Aldermaston Court | Enrolled at: Unknown | |
| Platoon/Section: | Company/Battery: | Group/Regiment: R.A.O.C. | Command: Southern Command |
| Year(s) of service: 1942 to 1943 | Reason for discharge: Wanting to spend more time with my son, who had been living with my sister since I joined up. | Trade: Storewoman | |
| Uniform Issued: S.D. Soft cap Shirt Collars Tie Stockings Shoes | Photo:  | | |
| Description of daily tasks: | Unavailable | | |
| Pay book: | Unavailable | | |

| | |
|---------------------------|---|
| Memorable moments: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• One day we all had to stand to attention for the C.O. I used to wear my cap at a saucy angle and as she stepped forward to reprimand me, her khaki bloomers fell down around her ankles. She just stepped out of them and gave them to the A.T.S. sergeant to dispose of!• Queen Mary came on a visit and I was responsible for seeing that she was looked after and had everything she needed.• The Germans used to fly over on their way to bomb Bristol docks and Bath and night after night we spent huddled up in the Air Raid Shelters. When we emerged, the sky would be lit up with all the activity going on a few miles away. |
| Photos: | Unavailable |